

This recently held art auction sure was a head turner. Uzma Irfan, managed to bring a Bentley into the city for display purposes. Talk about lending a royal feel to the event! Also, there was no space for bidders to even sit last weekend as the entire place was packed to the hilt. Looks like the organisers are having a contented laugh all the way to the bank.

