Celebrating Milestones with Christel DeHaan

The moonlit night and perfect weather set the scene at The Leela Palace for Bangalore's elite, to celebrate the achievements of business leader and philanthropist - Christel DeHaan.

Christel DeHaan owns the Christel House - the learning centre for underprivileged children, spread across different locations around the world, including Bangalore. Through Christel House, she aims to help impoverished children reach their dreams and ambitions.

Christel DeHaan's tryst with business leadership took place in 1947, when she co-founded Resort Condominiums International (RCI)- the largest network of time share vacation exchanges.

She was even appointed by President Clinton to the first White House Conference on Travel and Tourism. In 1996, she sold RCI and devoted her time to philanthropy, which has indeed changed the lives of many.

The evening saw an elegant affair of animated conversations, where guests not only commemorated Christel DeHaan's accomplishments but also the lives she has touched.
