Bengaluru plays host to first ever 'Modern & Contemporary Indian Art Auction 2013'

Mr Bedi and Mr Vinod

In what was the first edition of a biannual event, art patrons and buyers from leading metros of India came together to witness and participate in the 'Modern & Contemporary Indian Art Auction 2013'.

The organizing committee was represented by Uzma Irfan; Co-founder of the Event & Director, Corp Communications, Prestige Group and Neha Verma; Events & Promotions Head, Prestige Group who took centrestage and addressed the gathering to launch the proceedings.

Christel DeHaan, a familiar face globally representing charity and fine art was the Guest of honor. India's well known art auctioneer, Angira Arya conducted the auction ceremoniously amidst the cheers of patrons and record sales of the paintings and art works.

Another highlight was the still display of the rare Bentley Mulsane and the Continental GT.

'We are overwhelmed with the success of the first ever 'Modern & Contemporary Indian Art Auction'. The response we received and the sales we garnered are testimony to the growing popularity of fine art in Bangalore. I believe this is only the tip of the iceberg and Bengaluru will experience many more such events with the support of internationally acclaimed artists in the years to come.' - Adds an elated Uzma Irfan
